Using the KAICIID Peace Map

to Analyse the Connection Between SDGs and IRD Organizations

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This short, self-paced course was developed by KAICIID and the Superior Institute of Religious Sciences of Barcelona (ISCREB). The course introduces the KAICIID Peace Map and demonstrates how it can be a useful tool when analysing the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) in Interreligious Dialogue Groups and help inform faith-based interventions.

All course components are available now and can be completed at a time that is convenient for you (within a one-month period). Please note that this course is not facilitated by a course team leader. Any specific questions can be emailed to the KAICIID DKH team at georgia.gleoudi@kaiciid.org or dkh@kaiciid.org.

TARGET AUDIENCE AND FOCUS

This course is specifically designed for religious leaders, faith-based organizations, civil society and non-governmental organizations, UN agencies and other multilateral institutions, government officials, policy and decision-makers and individuals interested in this field.

ABOUT KAICIID'S SERIES OF SDGS SHORT COURSES

The practice of using interreligious dialogue (IRD) for engaging faith actors to support and promote the UN SDGs is rapidly emerging as a necessary tool for the twenty-first century education toolbox.

KAICIID online courses build the capacities of global leaders to address a number of today's most pressing challenges by developing knowledge, networks and skills.

The courses are part of an ongoing collaboration between KAICIID, UNEP, UPEACE, LWC, NMCL and ISCREB.

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN

- The purpose of the KAICIID Peace Map
- How to use and navigate the KAICIID Peace Map
- How the KAICIID Peace Map can be a useful tool to understand the type and extent of engagement by Interreligious Dialogue Groups with the SDGs
- How data generated from the KAICIID Peace Map can be used to create new courses of action for Interreligious Dialogue Groups and inform faith-based interventions

ABOUT ISCREB

Institut Superior de Ciències Religioses de Barcelona (ISCREB) was founded in 1996. It is a public teaching institution that belongs to the Archbishopric of Barcelona. We work within Christian confession, at the service of catholic dioceses. We help to train their seculars: people committed to the ecclesial mission, religion teachers... and so on. We also want to be a meeting point for all those who are interested in religious facts, and in contemporary spiritual searches. Religious diversity, and the plurality of convictions that we see in our most immediate context, have encouraged us to build spaces for meeting and dialogue.

Dr. Joan Hernandez Serret, Professor at the Superior Institute of Religious Sciences of Barcelona, University of Barcelona, and at the Faculty of Humanities of the International University of Catalonia.

Dr. Joan Hernandez Serret is a doctor cum laude in sociology from the University of Barcelona. He is currently a professor in several Universities and Masters' and Doctoral programmes at universities including the Catalan School of Public Administration, the Higher Institute of Religious Science of Barcelona, the Faculty of Humanities of the International University of Catalonia, and Ramon Lull (Blanquerna) University. He also serves as an adviser for interreligious and intercultural institutions such as KAICIID.

COURSE DESIGN AND METHODOLOGY

This interactive digital course is specifically designed for busy professionals who do not have time to take the longer, moderated seven-module course on 'Engaging Faith Actors to Support Implementation of the SDGs'. They can now select the relevant thematic topics and modules and learn on the go. Administered through a Massive Open Online Course (MOOC) platform, this short course takes around two hours to complete and can be taken anywhere, anytime, at a pace that suits and from a phone or a computer.

CERTIFICATION

Participants who successfully complete the course will receive Certificate of Completion.
